Advantages of Columbus as a convention city were outlined for members of the Marion Rotary members of the Marion Rotary at club at their luncheon meeting at Hotel Harding yesterday noon by Joseph E. Cross, convention manager of the Columbus Chamber of Commerce. He said the state capital has one of the best airports in the nation, five railroad trunk-lines, sevelent bus, excite and Ital has one of the best airports in the nation, five railroad trunk-lines, excellent bus service and roads, fine hotels and municipal buildings—all which go to make a convention city.

Among the incidents which he related in his informal talk was one concerning President Harding and the late Dr. T. H. McAtes, former pastor of the Trinity Baptist church here. Mr. Cross, a close friend of Mr. Harding, said the president happened to drop into a Portsmouth church many years ago where Dr. McAfee was then pastor. Mr. Harding was so impressed that he asked Dr. McAfee to accept the Marlen pastorate. From then on until the death of the president, a close friendship existed between the two men, Mr. Cross said.

The calling committee yesterday included Floyd Browns, A. L. Hollowsty, Dr. E. li. Morgun and Dr. O. G. Stephenson.
